Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bartolucci (3,974,916). Bartolucci discloses a method of improving personal hygiene through personally identifying a consumer of beverages in a container having a major exposed surface comprising an array of normally closed indicia (30) representing and identifying penetrable apertures (20-26) disposed on the major surface and marking (20) a selected one of the apertures correlating the container with identity of the consumer. The phrase “penetrable apertures” as claimed is considered equivalent to a closed aperture and the closed apertures of Bartolucci are inherently capable of penetrating.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on 2/24/2003 have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Applicant argues that “unable to find any teaching or suggestion of correlation with identity of the user (consumer)” in the remarks is noted. This is not persuasive because Bartolucci discloses a container having a visual indicator for identifying the contents of the container, for example, a cup of coffee/beverage to go must mark to indicate whether the coffee is regular, black with sugar or with cream etc. upon requested by the consumer for such a specific cup of coffee. This is considered equivalent to the phrase "correlation with identity of the consumer" as claimed.

Applicant argues that "the Bartolucci reference teaches away from apertures" is noted. This is not persuasive because there are no apertures cited in the claim.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
